

Data Standards and Products

Dr Ken Lunn – Director of Data Standards and Products

Choose and Book

Over five and a half million (5,959,307) bookings have been made to date.

Choose and Book has achieved over 20,000 bookings in a single day.

Choose and Book is being used for over 45% of NHS referral activity from GP surgery to first outpatient appointment.

Over 85% of all GP practices have used Choose and Book to refer their patients to hospital

The number of bookings made last week was 100,233.

Electronic Prescription Service (EPS)

Over 48 million (48,044,505) prescription messages have now been transmitted electronically.

1,444,913 prescription messages were transmitted electronically in the last week.

6,894 GP practices have had technical upgrades to the new system. 4,293 of these practices are actively operating the Electronic Prescription Service (EPS).

7,077 pharmacy systems have had technical upgrades to the new system and 4,887 are actively operating EPS.

EPS is being used for over 17% of daily prescription messages.

Clinical records

GP2GP has now been used for 34,434 medical record transfers.

3,503 GP practices have had technical upgrades to the new system. 2,346 of these practices are now actively operating GP2GP.

100,000 GP Summary records now on the Spine

DS&P Mission

To develop, maintain and support a comprehensive range of clinically-related data standards that effectively support healthcare within the NHS in an integrated and holistic manner, facilitating the delivery of a full longitudinal healthcare record for patients that can support a diverse set of secondary uses.

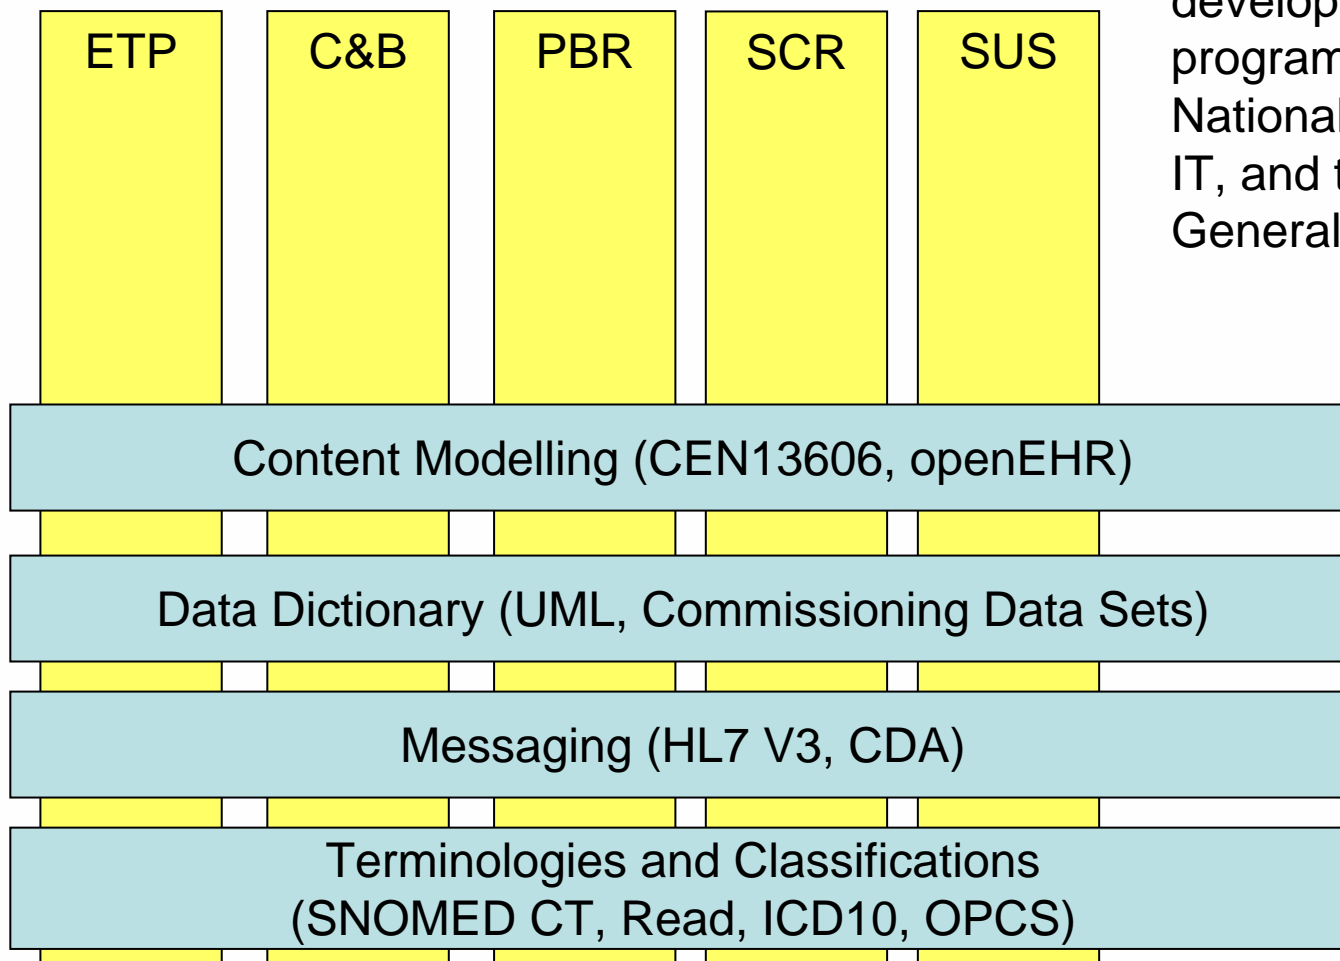

Data Standards and Products in the National Programme

Connecting for Health

DS&P provide a broad range of services to all development programmes in the National Programme for IT, and to the NHS in General

Development Programmes

Data Standards And Products

DS&P Products

Terminologies

- Read
- CTV3
- SNOMED CT
- DM+D

Classifications

- OPCS
- ICD10
- Cross maps

Data Dictionary

Messaging

- HL7 V3 for Spine
- CDA + Templates
- Commissioning Data Sets

Content Modelling

- Clinical Archetypes (CEN13606)
- Content models for suppliers

Staffing and resources

84 FTE

- 13 on tools and technical infrastructure
- >10 clinicians

> $2 million (USD) pa on tooling and infrastructure

Critical Success Factors

Clinical validity

Strong and effective governance

Skilled, enabled workforce

Modern technical infrastructure

Effective stakeholder engagement

Leadership of national and international standards bodies

Key initiatives

UK Terminology Centre / IHTSDO

- Terminology Authoring Platform
- Electronic licensing and distribution

Clinical Content Modelling based on CEN13606

- Feeding supplier designs
- Harmonising with the Spine architecture

Messaging

- HL7 templates
- Full tooling base (inc RMIM designer)

Single model base and tooling platform

Open Health Tools